Philadelphia TV Personality Dies

Philadelphia, Aug. 3 (AP)—Judy Lee, 37, Philadelphia television personality, was found dead today at the home of her mother, Mrs. William Davidson, in nearby Aldan.

Frank Williams, Delaware county coroner, said death was due to a pulmonary embolism or blood clot.

The blonde, former fashion model was one of Philadelphia's best known TV personalities since 1952. Three weeks ago, she became the city's first female newscaster on WRC-TV. She had previously been a commercial announcer and the station's "weather girl."

Last April Judy appeared for a week as fashion editor on Dave Garroway's Today show over NBC, subbing for Helen O'Connell, singer.
